

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 1

Employment Opportunities (U.S.)	3
Legal Officer, UN Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate, New York, NY.....	3
Professor in Terrorism Studies, Middlebury College, Monterey, CA.....	4
Assistant Professor of International Relations, University of Illinois, Champaign, IL ..	6
Professor of Asian Studies, US Army War College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania	6
Cyber Security and Policy Bridge Professor, Medford, MA	9
Language Analyst, NSA, Fort Meade, MA	10
Intelligence Analyst Development Program, NSA, Fort Meade, Maryland	11
Faculty Appointment in International Security Issues, Stanford University, California	12
Intelligence Analyst, Northrop Grumman, McLean, Virginia	13
All Source Russian Intelligence Analyst, Booz Allen Hamilton, Washington, D.C... ..	13
Intelligence Analyst, Booz Allen Hamilton, Washington, D.C.....	14
Senior Intelligence Analyst, Calhoun International, LLC, Odenton, MD.....	15
All-Source Analyst, Department of Defense, Shafter, Hawaii.....	16
Junior All Source Analyst, BAE Systems, Washington, D.C.....	17
Iran Counter Threat Analyst, Booz Allen Hamilton, Washington, D.C.....	17
Political Analyst, CIA, Washington, D.C.....	18
IT Cyber Security Intelligence Analyst, Southern Company, Atlanta, GA.....	19
Research Fellow, The SETA Foundation, Washington, D.C.....	20
Assistant Professor of International Relations or Comparative Politics, UNC Pembroke, Pembroke North Carolina.....	21
Intelligence Analyst, Northrop Grumman, McLean, Virginia	22
Intelligence Analyst, Calhoun International, LLC, Washington, D.C.....	23
Post-Doctoral Fellow, Korbel School of International Studies, Denver, CO	24
Employment Opportunities (International)	26
Program Officer, MENA Desk, Paris, France	26
Camp Coordination & Camp Management (CCCM) Officer, UNHCR, Various Locations	27
Gender Advisor, World Learning, Pakistan	28
Regional Field Manager: Asia, Global Leadership Adventures, Thailand	29
Regional Field Manager: South America, Global Leadership Adventures, Peru	31
Southeast Asia Political & Security Risk Analyst, Allan & Associates, London, United Kingdom.....	32

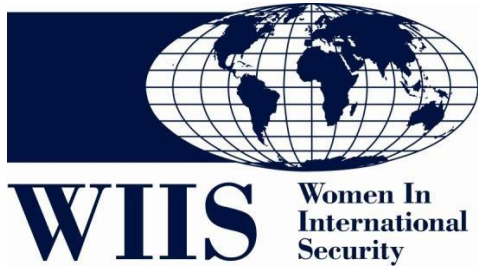

WIIS Women In International Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Fellowships, Grants, Internships, and Academic Opportunities.....	34
NATO PA Research Assistant, NATO, Brussels, Belgium	34
Intern for Political Affairs, United Nations, Vienna, Austria	35
Military Trip to Israel, The Foundation for Defense of Democracies	36
International Affairs Fellowship	37
International Affairs Fellowship in Canada.....	38
International Affairs Fellowship in Japan.....	38
International Affairs Fellowship for Tenured International Relations Scholars ...	39
Bosch Fellowship, Berlin, Germany	40
Next Generation National Security Leaders Program, CNAS, Washington, D.C.....	41
Stanton Nuclear Security Fellowship.....	42
Policy Oriented Research and Knowledge Management on Women's Political Participation, United Nations, New York, NY	42
Dissertation Fellowship Award	43
International Affairs Fellowship in Nuclear Security	44
Consular Fellows Program, U.S. Department of State, Washington, D.C.	45
Refugee Policy Intern (Fall), HIAS, Silver Spring, Maryland	46
Cora Weiss Fellowship, Global Network of Women Peacebuilders, Washington, D.C.	47
.....	47
Alfa Fellow, Alfa Fellowship Program, Russia	48

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 3

Employment Opportunities (U.S.)

Legal Officer, UN Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate,
New York, NY

Deadline: October 16, 2016

Position Description:

- Analyze the status of implementation of UN resolutions 1373 (2001) and 1624 (2005) and 2178 (2014) with respect to assigned Member States concerning the global fight against terrorism.
- Prepare and draft reports on States evaluated and propose solutions to the difficulties observed in complying with appropriate Security Council resolution(s).
- Identify the legal issues where evaluated States require technical assistance and ensure that technical assistance providers/donors provide follow-up assistance.
- Participate in CTC visits to Member States to report on their compliance with relevant resolutions and make recommendations on subsequent follow-up actions to be taken.
- Clarify and disseminate the standards and best practices approved by the CTC to be met by Member States.
- Liaise with Member States, international and regional organizations on any technical and other assistance programs available that could facilitate implementation of relevant resolutions.
- Assist in organizing CTED- sponsored regional workshops to bring together senior practitioners on implementing various aspects of resolution 1373 (2001) and 1624 (2005) and 2178 (2014).
- Prepare presentations to the CTC and/or for the general membership.
- Support the work of one or more technical working groups in CTED that deal with cross-cutting functional counter-terrorism issues.
- Represent CTED, as requested, at international conferences or meetings to which the Executive Director has been invited and represent CTED in coordinating meetings with local UN counter-terrorism entities.
- Undertakes any other duties as may be assigned.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 4

See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge of international legal procedures and instruments, including criminal law, both substantive and procedural. Ability to apply legal expertise to analyzing a diverse range of complex and unusual legal issues and problems and in developing innovative and creative solutions in prosecuting complex criminal cases;
- Strong analytical skills and ability to conduct comprehensive legal research on a range of issues, including those of a unique and/or complex nature; proficiency in legal writing and expression and ability to prepare legal briefs, opinions, indictments or legal submissions/motions, and a variety of legal instruments and related documents;
- Discretion and sound judgment in applying legal expertise to sensitive, complex legal issues;
- Strong negotiating skills and ability to influence others to reach agreement;
- Ability to work to tight deadlines and handle multiple concurrent projects/cases;
- Knowledge of contemporary international relations and of UN system, organization and interrelationships;
- Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work.

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Professor in Terrorism Studies, Middlebury College, Monterey, CA

Deadline: October 31, 2016

Position Description:

The Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey (MIIS) seeks to hire a full-time faculty member in the field of terrorism studies. The appointment will be in the Institute's MA program in Nonproliferation and Terrorism Studies (MANPTS) in the Graduate School of International Policy and Management (GSIPM). The

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 5

position is open with respect to rank (assistant, associate, or full professor); for an individual with appropriate professional experience an appointment as a professor of practice is also possible. The position is also open with respect to areas of expertise within the field of terrorism studies, but we are especially interested in candidates who can teach courses on policies and strategies for responding to terrorism, such as counterterrorism, homeland security, or the roles of intelligence or law enforcement. Ability to teach one or more of our required core classes, such as introduction to terrorism, global politics, or research methods, would be a plus. Expertise in a relevant region or area in world politics, ideally complemented by appropriate language capabilities, is also welcomed. For an appropriately qualified candidate, the position may also come with an option to run our terrorism research center, MontREP (the Monterey Terrorism Research and Education Program). An interest in serving as the director of MontREP is not however a requirement to be considered for the faculty position. MIIS has a non-tenure, contract-based system. The initial appointment is for three years. Renewal after three years is based on performance in the areas of teaching, research, and service. Faculty work on a nine-month contract, and the standard teaching load at MIIS is 3/2. This position will report to the MANPTS Program Chair and the GSIPM Dean.

Qualifications:

- A Ph.D. in Political Science, History, or another relevant field, with a research specialization relevant to terrorism studies, or extensive professional experience dealing with terrorism.
- Expertise on topics relevant to understanding terrorism and how to respond to it;
- Ability to develop and direct research projects;
- Ability to teach courses in Terrorism Studies and related subjects;
- Collegiality and ability to work with others in an academic environment.
- A proven track record teaching specialized courses on terrorism and/or counterterrorism, or on related topics such as homeland security, cybersecurity, intelligence, or counterinsurgency, will be a plus.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 6

Assistant Professor of International Relations, University of Illinois, Champaign, IL

Deadline: November 1, 2016

Position Description:

The Department of Political Science invites applications and nominations for a full-time tenure-track faculty position at the rank of assistant professor. Specialization is open, but preference will be given to scholars with interests in international conflict, political economy, international cooperation, international law, or international organizations. Candidates must possess strong theoretical, analytical, and empirical skills. The successful candidate will show potential to publish in the top disciplinary journals, and demonstrate a commitment to excellence in teaching. Successful candidates are expected to teach effectively at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, establish and maintain an active and independent research program, and provide service to the department, the university and the profession.

Qualifications:

Ph.D. in Political Science or related field required by mid-June for a preferred start date of August 16, 2017.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Professor of Asian Studies, US Army War College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania

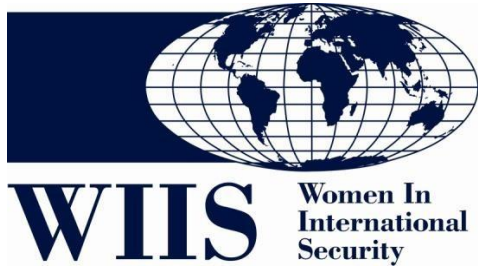

Deadline: November 14, 2016

Position Description:

Salary: $72,747.00 to $99,849 per year

Starting Date: No later than June 15, 2017

This is a fulltime, long-term, civilian faculty position in the Department of National Security and Strategy, at the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania. Initial appointment may be for up to 3 years; the first year is probationary. Appointments may be renewed. Academic rank and salary will be based on education and experience. We encourage young, high-potential scholars to apply for the position, even if their practical experience is limited. The U.S. Army War College is the Army's most senior institution for professional military education. It educates the top echelon of U.S. military officers of all services, U.S. government civilians, and military officers from scores of foreign countries. It develops strategic leaders by providing a rigorous curriculum of theoretical and professional subjects. The education is delivered two ways—through a 10-month resident program (about 385 students) and a 2-year distance education program (about 750 students). Both programs lead to a Master's of Strategic Studies accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education. Additionally, the Army War College administers numerous professional development programs focused on strategic thinking and leadership. These programs range from a fourteen-week course for junior officers qualifying as Army strategists to shorter courses for general officers, senior colonels, and command sergeants major. Relocation (moving) expenses are reimbursable.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 7

Principal Duties:

Design and teach core courses related to national security policy and strategy formulation, theories of war and strategy, and regional studies (Asia). Design and teach a course on Asian security in support of the regional studies program. Design and teach elective courses and directed studies for selected students. Review course material for accuracy and relevance. Review emerging strategic threats and opportunities, national security policy initiatives, defense strategy and concepts, and policy and strategy formulation procedures and systems. Engage in scholarship that advances knowledge in fields relevant to the Army War College curriculum. Provide counsel to faculty and students on subjects related to strategy, policy, international relations, government, theory and strategy and war, history, strategic culture, national power, interagency operations, and other U.S. policy and strategy systems and procedures. Coordinate with external agencies on behalf of the Army War College. Engage in service (internal and external) in support of Army War College missions. Serve annually as a faculty instructor for one seminar, faculty advisor for up to six students, and project advisor for student research projects. As directed, support curricular programs of the Department of National Security and Strategy, such as the National Security Policy Program and the National Security Seminar.

Benefits:

WIIS Jobs Hotline

WIIS Women In
International
Security

October 14, 2016

Page | 8

The person selected as the Professor of Asian Studies would find employment at the Army War College enjoyable, satisfying, and rewarding. He/she would have the benefit of working at an institution animated by a sense of mission and devotion to service. Additionally, he/she would sense the collegiality of the faculty, security of the military environment, quality and diversity of the student body, and climate of cooperation and teamwork. These defining features have long appealed to civilian faculty members who have worked at the Army War College for any length of time. The Department of Defense offers an excellent benefits program. In addition to take home pay, the compensation/benefits package may include: comprehensive health and life insurance; generous retirement programs; paid holidays, sick leave, and vacation time; flexible work environment and alternate work schedules; paid employment-related training and education; and opportunity to earn bonuses, incentives, and awards.

Qualifications:

- U.S. citizen.
- able to obtain and maintain a security clearance.
- able and willing to travel domestically and internationally on occasion.
- compliant with Drug Abuse Testing Program requirements.
- PhD or equivalent terminal degree in Asian studies, national security studies, international relations, government, political science, history, or a related field
- Record of superlative teaching at the undergraduate, graduate, and/or Senior Service College level.
- Must demonstrate preparedness for teaching mature, professional students.
- Record of scholarly research and publication—or evidence of high potential for such research and publication—in areas relevant to the curriculum, to include regional studies (Asia), national security policy and strategy, international relations, political science, history, and related areas.
- Ability to prepare, teach, and lecture on subjects related to regional studies (Asia), national security policy and strategy formulation, and theories of war and strategy.
- Ability to conceptualize, design, and write lesson plans that support the core and elective courses in the Department of National Security and Strategy.
- Refined oral and written communication skills, including the ability to serve as a project advisor for student research projects.

Desirable:

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 9

- Record of government service involving policy and strategy formulation at the national/strategic level, or non-governmental work of a similar nature and scope Some federal jobs, this one included, allow substitution of strong education credentials for professional experience to qualify.

How to Apply:

Candidates must submit a complete application to be considered for the position. The application packet consists of the following items:

- Letter of application addressing the candidate's qualifications
- Curriculum vitae or résumé Proof of U.S. citizenship
- Samples of scholarship (Electronic format is preferred, as hard copies will not be returned without a self-addressed and metered envelope.)
- Academic transcripts (graduate level). Unofficial transcripts are required with your application. You must provide official transcripts upon request.
- A list of four professional references. Both paper and electronic submissions are acceptable, but the latter is strongly encouraged.
- Submit your complete application to:
- Dr. G. K. Cunningham Associate Provost U.S. Army War College
122 Forbes Avenue Carlisle, PA 17013-5217
http://glenn.k.cunningham.civ@mail.mil (717) 245-3356

Cyber Security and Policy Bridge Professor, Medford, MA

Deadline: November 30, 2016

Position Description:

Tufts University seeks to fill a newly-created Bridge Professorship in Cyber Security and Policy starting in September 2017. The successful candidate will be appointed at the rank of Professor or Associate Professor in the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy and the School of Engineering's Department of Computer Science. This interdisciplinary position is designed to bridge the technical and policy expertise necessary to advance the state of knowledge in cyber security and policy. Tufts is looking for a scholar with a distinguished track record in research, teaching, and outreach in topics related to cyber security and policy. Broadly construed, this topic area includes: privacy; encryption; the role of power and conflict in cyberspace;

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 10

public policy, international and domestic laws pertaining to cyber security; ethical and societal implications of cyber security; critical infrastructure protection and resiliency; automatic detection of vulnerabilities; measuring and modeling cyber security; reverse engineering and exploitation; and tools and techniques for understanding cyber security and policy. See full job description here.

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Language Analyst, NSA, Fort Meade, MA

Deadline: December 4, 2016

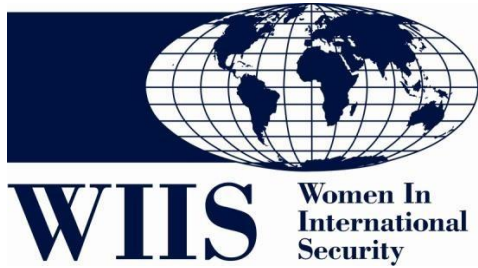

Position Description:

A passion for foreign languages is a must for this profession. Language proficiency and understanding of nuance, context, cultural overtones, and dialect enables NSA Language Analysts to provide the most complete and accurate Signals Intelligence picture to U.S. policy makers, military commanders, and Intelligence Community members. As a Language Analyst, you will be part of a team working directly with the original written or spoken language in a dynamic environment. You will determine the relevance of the intelligence collected, research it, analyze it and put it into context. Language Analysts can spend many hours per day translating or transcribing the foreign language into English as part of their analysis. It's a tremendous responsibility, but one which is extremely satisfying. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

The NSA is always looking for well-qualified applicants with exceptional language skills. They are currently looking for applicants with proficiency in the languages listed below. If you don't see your language in the list, you should still apply because our language requirements can change at any time.

- Arabic
- Chinese (Mandarin)
- Pashto
- Persian-Dari

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 11

- Persian-Farsi
- Russian

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Intelligence Analyst Development Program, NSA, Fort Meade, Maryland

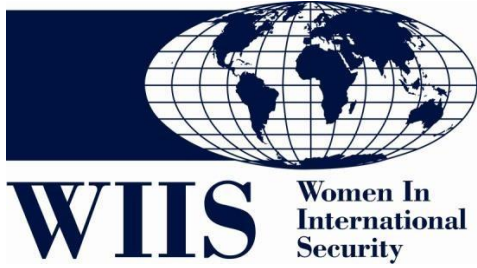

Deadline: December 10, 2016

Position Description:

NSA Intelligence Analysts perform a wide range of analytic tasks, including the following: research relevant sources for information on foreign intelligence targets; develop query strategies to obtain relevant information; analyze foreign target intelligence; assess validity and relevance of foreign intelligence; profile foreign targets and their activities; produce intelligence reports that address customer information needs; perform target discovery by developing strategies to obtain new information and sources for intelligence; and/or monitor target data for changes or anomalies. Additionally, NSA Intelligence Analysts are expected to take an inclusive approach to problem solving and mission accomplishment by frequently engaging with partners, enablers and customers across the Intelligence Community. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Entry is with a High School diploma and 4 years of experience, or an Associate's degree and 3 years of experience, or a Bachelor's degree and no experience.
- Degree can be in any field, preferably in a liberal arts field.
- Experience performing cryptanalytic or cryptologic work.
- Experience must be in an area directly related to an NSA mission.
- Entry is with a High School diploma and 8 years of experience, or an Associate's degree and 6 years of experience, or a Bachelor's degree and 3 years of experience, or a Master's degree and 1 year of experience or a Doctoral degree and no experience.
- Degree can be in any field, preferably in a liberal arts field.
- Experience performing cryptanalytic or cryptologic work.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 12

- Experience must be in an area directly related to an NSA mission.

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Faculty Appointment in International Security Issues, Stanford University, California

Deadline: December 31, 2016

Position Description:

Stanford University seeks candidates for a new faculty position in international security affairs. This is an open search with respect to disciplinary focus. The successful candidate will have expertise in international security and cooperation issues. We are particularly interested in candidates whose research examines:

- Middle Eastern politics
- American foreign policy/grand strategy
- International governance, organizations and cooperation
- Science, technology and global security

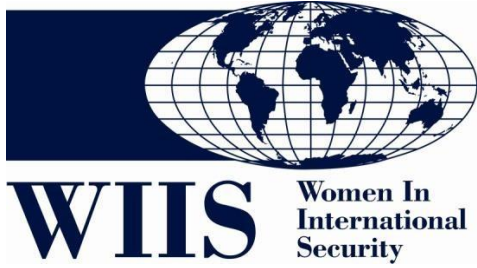

The new faculty member will be appointed as the Steven C. Hazy Senior Fellow, an endowed faculty chair within the Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies (FSI) and affiliated with the Center for International Security and Cooperation (CISAC). Senior fellows at Stanford University are full members of the Academic Council, with a rank equivalent to associate or full professor.

Qualifications:

Applicants should possess an exceptional record of research and publication, outstanding experience in developing, advising, or implementing policy, and a demonstrated commitment to mentoring and teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. The successful candidate will be expected to provide leadership for FSI's research, teaching, and policy outreach in international security affairs.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 13

Intelligence Analyst, Northrop Grumman, McLean, Virginia

Posted: August 29, 2016

Position Description:

Northrop Grumman Mission Systems is seeking proactive entry and mid-level professionals to join our team of dedicated analysts supporting ongoing research and analysis focused on Order of Battle for conventional and strategic military forces.

Qualifications:

- 2 to 5 years' experience working in military intelligence and Order of Battle
- Knowledge of order-of-battle systems, processes, status, and procedures
- Experience evaluating data from a variety of sources, including open source and classified sources
- Capable of creating presentations in a variety of formats to support analysts' briefing requirements (there may be opportunities to attend such briefings to provide area expertise);
- Ability to use and manipulate various MS Office tools
- Experience working in one of the following AOR's - Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, African Countries, Asia
- This position is located in Northern Virginia and requires a CURRENT, active TS/SCI with Polygraph.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

All Source Russian Intelligence Analyst, Booz Allen Hamilton, Washington, D.C.

Posted: September 8, 2016

Position Description:

Conduct all-source intelligence research, analysis, and production on Russian or Eurasian military leadership and intentions, Russian or Eurasian foreign military

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 14

policy, or Russian or Eurasian military strategy and doctrine. Use analytic software tools to perform research and analysis. Present or disseminate findings to customers. Contribute to the intelligence cycle, including drafting intelligence requirements, producing analysis in line with customer priorities, and evaluating intelligence reporting. Participate in client rotations, field postings, joint duty, or temporary duty (TDY) requirements, as assigned. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- 4+ years of experience with analyzing Russian or Eurasian military affairs, national leadership, domestic politics, foreign policy, defense economics, or other Russian or Eurasian national security field
- Ability to read Russian fluently, including an ILR, DLPT, or equivalent reading score of 3+
- TS/SCI clearance
- BA or BS degree and 6+ years of experience with intelligence analysis or specialized training in all-source intelligence analysis

How to Apply:

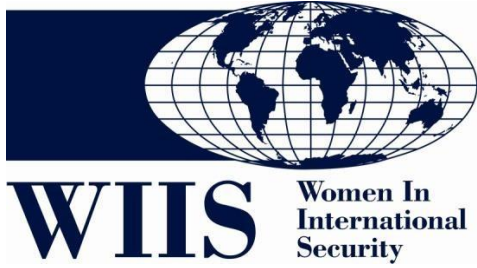

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Intelligence Analyst, Booz Allen Hamilton, Washington, D.C.

Posted: September 8, 2016

Position Description:

Provide executive secretariat support to senior-level managers within the Intelligence Community (IC). Deliver formal finished intelligence products, including monitoring, coordination, and shepherding multiple products from inception to final dissemination. Collaborate with the drafting, integrating contributions, or leading coordination for various management directed products. Perform reviews of drafts for content, format, and style, including ensuring that complex technical concepts are communicated clearly for general audiences. Maintain responsibility for supporting management through attendance of various community sessions, meetings, including domestic and international, and briefings.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 15

Qualifications:

- 10+ years of experience with the executive-level of support
- Experience with Microsoft Office
- Ability to manage competing priorities
- TS/SCI clearance with polygraph
- BA or BS degree required
- Experience with IC research tools and databases
- Possession of excellent oral and written communication skills
- Possession of excellent analytical and organizational skills
- BA or BS degree in Mathematics, Engineering, or Physical Sciences

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Senior Intelligence Analyst, Calhoun International, LLC, Odenton, MD

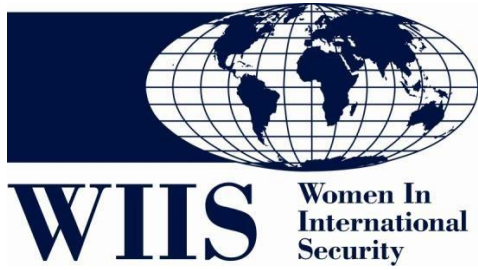

Posted: September 12, 2016

Position Description:

Calhoun International is an information technology and management consulting company providing innovative solutions to our clients. Our expertise ranges from strategic intelligence analysis and network modeling, expert instruction on intelligence analysis and sensors, and cyberspace operations to information systems training and services as well as knowledge management. Candidates will provide operational and analytic support to Army Operations Group. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Knowledge and experience with intelligence operations and in assisting with drafting expert assessments across operations priorities on behalf of the stakeholder, with specialized experience in:
 - Prior collection management experience in any discipline;
 - Knowledge of HUMINT operations;
 - Experience writing analytic products following IC directives and guidance;
 - 3 years of experience with working in the intelligence community;

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 16

- 5 years of experience with data analysis in the DoD or IC;
- Expert knowledge of Army structure and defense level intelligence operations: intelligence collection, fusion, analysis, production, and dissemination for intelligence databases and products;
- Expert knowledge and experience with intelligence automated systems, especially imagery analysis, signals intelligence and exploitation tools and libraries;
- Detailed knowledge of all Intelligence Agencies, Law Enforcement Agencies and Inter Agency programs and products;
- Knowledge of intelligence oversight and security guidelines;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

All-Source Analyst, Department of Defense, Shafter, Hawaii

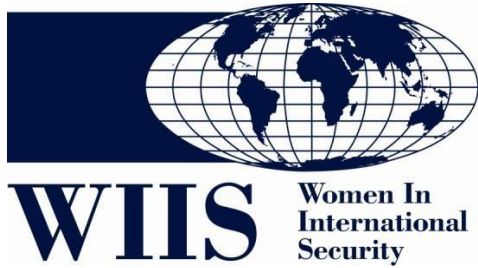

Posted: September 12, 2016

Position Description:

Analyze a variety of information and intelligence relevant to Southeast Asian issues that impact the US Army Pacific's area of interest. Prepare products using all-source intelligence analytical tradecraft. Develop research studies and recommendations. Provide additional analysis in response to specific threats and incident reports, as required. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- 5+ years of experience as an intelligence analyst
- Knowledge of the application of advanced analysis tools
- Knowledge of the intelligence community's mission, structure, and capabilities
- Ability to use precision language to communicate with a wide audience and summarize, analyze, and edit content
- Ability to construct a logical argument and convey complex concepts through written, oral, and visual means

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 17

- Ability to use holistic research techniques to gather relevant information
- Ability to analyze and evaluate research and interpret data and accomplish tasks under short time constraints
- Active TS/SCI

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Junior All Source Analyst, BAE Systems, Washington, D.C.

Posted: September 13, 2016

Position Description:

BAE Systems is a premier global defense and security company with approximately 90,000 employees delivering a full range of products and services for air, land and naval forces, as well as advanced electronics, security, information technology solutions and customer support and services. Information Solutions, based in Reston, Virginia, is among the 10 largest IT providers to the U.S. government, serving most of the federal defense and civilian marketplace. The junior level analyst will support one of three branches under the program including intelligence operations, threat analysis or watch listing. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree or equivalent experience or four additional years of experience in lieu of a degree.
- Required Security Clearance: TS/SCI

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Iran Counter Threat Analyst, Booz Allen Hamilton, Washington, D.C.

Posted: September 29, 2016

Position Description:

Perform research and analysis of complex financial and other activities, relationships, and holdings of malignant regimes and their agents to assist with

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 18

identifying vulnerabilities of these groups for targeted financial measures. Support Iranian issues and counter threat analysis. Review and analyze a wide range of intelligence, law enforcement, financial, and business data and produce written analyses on financial support networks to develop targets for financial sanctions. Work with interagency partners to help shape foreign policy goals.

Qualifications:

- 3+ years of experience with working in intelligence analysis or targeting
- 3+ years of experience with all-source information research and analysis
- Experience with intelligence messaging and research tools
- Ability to write high-quality assessments and briefings for a senior-level audience
- Active TS/SCI clearance
- BA or BS degree
- Experience with interagency coordination, including government agencies preferred
- Applicants selected will be subject to a security investigation and may need to meet eligibility requirements for access to classified information; TS/SCI clearance is required.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Political Analyst, CIA, Washington, D.C.

Posted: September 13, 2016

Position Description:

Political analysts support US policymakers by producing written assessments of the domestic politics and international relations of foreign governments and entities. They examine these actors' goals and motivations, culture, values, society, and ideologies; their resources and capabilities; their political and decision making processes; the strengths and weaknesses of their strategies for achieving their goals; and the impact of those elements on US interests.

Qualifications:

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 19

Candidates with a bachelor's or master's degree in foreign area studies, international relations, political science, history, or national security studies are encouraged to apply. A degree in demography, anthropology, geography, comparative politics, or media studies, combined with an international focus, is also of interest. Candidates proficient in at least one of the languages of their area of expertise (for example, Mandarin Chinese for China specialists, Arabic or Farsi for the Middle East, or Urdu or Hindi for South Asia) and who have some travel or residency in the region are highly desired. A minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4-point scale is required. Competitive candidates typically will have higher GPAs, relevant experience, strong verbal presentation and writing skills, including the demonstrated ability to write clear and concise text, and a keen interest in a career that requires regular writing assignments.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

IT Cyber Security Intelligence Analyst, Southern Company, Atlanta, GA.

Posted: October 5th, 2016

Position Description: This position is in our Security Operations Center where you will serve as a cyber-threat intelligence analyst. You will provide cutting-edge, innovative, and thoroughly-vetted finished intelligence products, including high-quality papers, briefings, recommendations, and findings for IT managers, security analyst, device owners, and organizational units within the company. Review multiple social media and industry based threat intelligence feeds and provide situational awareness to the company regarding the gathered intelligence. Create actionable intelligence for our Incident Response Team security analyst.

Qualifications:

- 1+ years of experience gathering intelligence from open-sources, government, industry, and vendor sources
- 3+ years of experience as a SOC analyst performing threat monitoring and incident response in an enterprise SOC preferred
- Ability to develop specific expertise, discern patterns of complex threat actor behavior, and communicate an understanding of current and developing

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 20

- Cyber threats
- Ability to leverage well-honed online researching expertise to identify and navigate relevant online forums, including Web sites, social media, and traditional sources to support research and analysis
- Experience with emerging computer or online technologies, online social behaviors, and computer or Internet slang
- Must be capable of utilizing information security and monitoring tools
- Substantial knowledge of IT core infrastructure and cyber security components/devices preferred
- Ability to work independently and within a team environment
- Ability to display foreign language proficiency in priority languages, including Arabic, Farsi, Mandarin, Russian, or Turkish-Possession of excellent oral and written communication skills preferred
- Ability to build and maintain strong relationships with external and industry intelligence partners
- Ability to manage and grow intelligence vendor relationships
- Have or be capable of obtaining a SECRET DOD clearance
- Degree in International Relations, Security Studies, Intelligence Studies, Political Science, Regional Studies, Cyber Security, or International Law preferred

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Research Fellow, The SETA Foundation, Washington, D.C.

Posted: October 6, 2016

Position Description:

SETA Foundation at Washington D.C. is accepting applications for a Resident Research Fellow. The successful candidate will support SETA D.C.'s research team in various projects and develop his/her own research agenda. The Fellow should have at least a Master's degree in Political Science, International Relations or a related field as well as a strong track record in foreign policy research and work experience. He/she will be expected to have a publication record along with a proven expertise on Turkey, Turkish foreign policy, and US-Turkey relations. The Research Fellow

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 21

will be expected to conduct original research, author policy and research memos and reports, and help with various research projects. He/she will also be expected to assist with organizing events and conferences. Candidates must be comfortable with engaging decision-makers and high-ranking officials.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree or higher in Political Science, International Relations or a related field.
- Proven Expertise on Turkey, Turkish foreign policy, and US-Turkey relations.
- Strong track record in foreign policy research and work experience ideally in a public policy institution.
- Excellent interpersonal skills to work in a team-oriented and multicultural environment.
- Ability to work independently and with initiative, multi-task as needed, meet deadlines, and manage time well.
- Demonstrated professional level of attention to detail, clarity, and accuracy.
- High level of comfort in working with high-profile individuals from government and international organizations.
- Native or near native fluency in Turkish.

How to Apply:

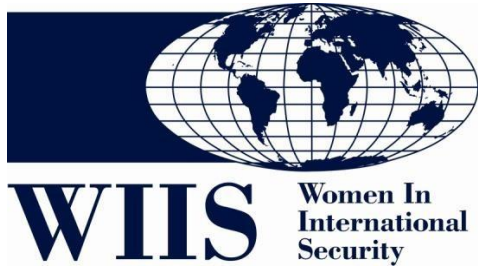

Find more information about the application process here.

Assistant Professor of International Relations or Comparative Politics, UNC Pembroke, Pembroke North Carolina

Posted: October 7, 2016

Position Description:

The Department of Political Science and Public Administration at the University of North Carolina, Pembroke seeks an assistant professor of international relations and/or comparative politics. The area of specialization is open, but preference will be given to scholars of European politics, international organizations, or Latin American politics. The Department has a growing study abroad curriculum. Applicants should address their willingness to sponsor study abroad program in their application materials. UNCP is a regional university that emphasizes excellence in teaching. The teaching load for this position is a 3-4 before tenure and will convert to a 4-4 teaching load after tenure. Additionally, the successful candidate will be expected to teach in the University-wide writing enriched curriculum. Applicants should address their willingness to participate in the University-wide writing enriched curriculum by identifying the ways that student writing is utilized in their courses.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 22

Qualifications:

To be considered for this position, candidates must hold a Ph.D. in political science or be ABD with a clear date of completion.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Intelligence Analyst, Northrop Grumman, McLean, Virginia

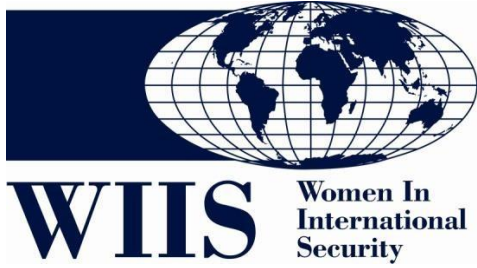

Posted: October 11, 2016

Position Description:

Northrop Grumman Mission Systems is seeking proactive junior to mid-level professionals to join our team of dedicated Intelligence Analysts supporting ongoing research and analysis projects. This position will require a candidate that can successfully identify, gather and assess information in order to determine relationships, patterns, trends, indicators and warnings that address intelligence gaps. The customer may require attendance at meetings within the metropolitan area to brief colleagues across the community.

Qualifications:

- Experience evaluating data from a variety of sources, including open source and classified sources
- Capable of creating presentations in a variety of formats to support analysts' briefing requirements (there may be opportunities to attend such briefings to provide area expertise)
- Ability to use and manipulate various MS Office tools
- Experience working in one of the following AOR's - Syria, Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan, African Countries, Asia

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 23

This requisition may be filled at either a level 2 or a level 3.

- Basic Qualifications for a level 2 are a Bachelors degree military history, political science, international relations, security studies, intelligence analysis, or other related discipline and 2 years of experience in military intelligence issues. Experience will be consider in lieu of degree.
- Basic Qualifications for a level 3 are a Bachelors degree military history, political science, international relations, security studies, intelligence analysis, or other related discipline and 5 years of experience in military intelligence issues. Experience will be consider in lieu of degree.
- Active TS/SCI with polygraph clearance required.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Intelligence Analyst, Calhoun International, LLC, Washington, D.C.

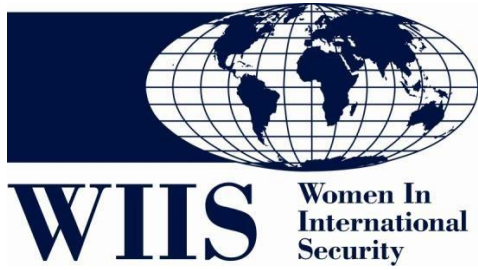

Posted: October 11, 2016

Position Description:

Calhoun International is seeking qualified intelligence analysts with experience in but not limited to any of the following intelligence disciplines: All-Source Intelligence, Counterintelligence (CI), Geospatial Intelligence (GEOINT), Human Intelligence (HUMINT), Imagery Intelligence (IMINT), Measurement and Signatures Intelligence (MASINT), and Signals Intelligence (SIGINT). Analysts will support any of several intelligence agencies/activities, predominantly in the Washington, D.C. metro area. Positions are contingent upon task order award.

Qualifications:

- Qualified candidates must have recent experience in the respective discipline and within the Intelligence Community.
- Must have excellent writing and briefing skills.
- Candidate must demonstrate proficiency in a variety of commonly used analyst tools and databases, to include Microsoft Office applications.
- Candidate must be a U.S. citizen and possess and maintain an active Top Secret clearance with SCI eligibility.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 24

- Positions will be available at multiple levels, with anywhere from 3 to 10+ years of experience required.
- Deployment experience is a plus.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Post-Doctoral Fellow, Korbel School of International Studies, Denver, CO

Posted: October 11, 2016

Position Description:

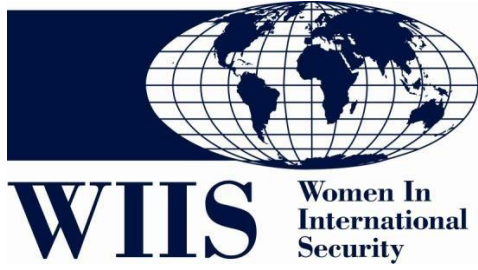

The Sié Center is a center of excellence within the Josef Korbel School that leads research, education and policy programs focused on global peace and security. Eight faculty, visiting and post-doctoral scholars, and over 40 Korbel MA and PhD students contribute to the Center's activities.

While at the Sié Center, post-doctoral fellows have opportunities to work with Center faculty and graduate students, engage with relevant policy practitioners, and receive clerical and research/travel support sufficient to allow the completion of a major research product. Fellows will be expected to attend and contribute to a seminar series and engage with other program initiatives including conferences, commentary, and publications.

The Sié Chéou-Kang Center for International Security and Diplomacy at the University of Denver's Josef Korbel School of International Studies has openings in its post-doctoral fellows program, dependent on funding. We will accept applications from candidates who specialize in global peace and security (broadly construed) but are particularly interested in those doing policy relevant research on the effects of inclusion on violence, peace-building, and governance. Fellows will engage in their own research, participate in center activities, and have opportunities to contribute to collaborative research designed to inform (and be informed by) contemporary policy concerns and strategies. The Fellowship will begin September 1, 2017. Post-doctoral fellows will spend one academic year at the Sié Center.

Qualifications:

- Substantial progress towards a PhD in Political Science or other relevant

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 25

discipline. Applicants should complete all requirements for their PhD by June 30, 2017 and be no more than 3 years from the awarding of their degree (i.e., September 2013).

- Policy relevant research agenda related to the Centers program.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 26

Employment Opportunities (International)

Program Officer, MENA Desk, Paris, France

Deadline: October 15, 2016

Position Description:

FIDH (International Federation of Human Rights) is a non-governmental organization based in Paris whose mission is to promote respect for the principles outlined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. FIDH is a federation of 184 national associations dedicated to the defense of human rights on the five continents. The Middle East and North Africa (MENA) Desk's Program officer reports to the MENA desk's Director and to the Chief of Operations Officer (COO). See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- At least 4 years of professional experience in a similar role in the field of human rights and/or in the NGO sector. Good knowledge of the MENA region.
- Required qualifications: Master's Degree in Law, International Relations, Human Rights or Political Science.
- Fluent written and spoken Arabic and English, and a good knowledge of French are required.
- Gross annual income: From EUR 32,500 per annum (over 13 months), depending on experience. Possibility of recruitment at a different level based on a different job profile.
- Long term contract starting in November 2016.
- 35-hours work week (full-time position).

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 27

Camp Coordination & Camp Management (CCCM) Officer, UNHCR, Various Locations

Deadline: December 30, 2016

Position Description:

- Coordinate/develop/update agreed response strategies and action plans for the cluster/sector and ensure that these are adequately reflected in overall country strategies
- Involve all relevant partners in site needs assessment and analysis
- Identify gaps and duplications assess, verify, and map emerging assistance needs and protection issues
- Map and track who is doing what, where, when
- Develop exit/transition strategy for communal settings
- Support selection, planning and development of communal settings in collaboration with site planners and with national actors
- Ensure the site design supports protection and assistance of men, women, boys and girls
- Support registration of displaced populations in communal settings, paying particular attention to gender, age and diversity dimensions; and update the population registry/enrolment for assistance
- Ensure strategies are developed to support and strengthen residents' livelihood initiatives
- Conduct contingency planning based and most likely scenarios of population movements
- Enact environment protection and mitigation of negative impacts on ecological habitats
- Where possible, support the national government/authorities in implementing their activities and upholding them to their obligations that meet the identified priority needs
- Ensure integration of agreed priority cross-cutting issues in needs assessment, analysis, planning, monitoring and response
- Ensure gender sensitive programming
- Ensure the CCCM Cluster/sector maps out the operational requirements for a CCCM response; and identify and establish standards and guidelines that facilitate interoperability

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 28

See full job description here.

Gender Advisor, World Learning, Pakistan

Posted: October 7, 2016

Position Description:

World Learning seeks a Gender Advisor for an anticipated USAID-funded girls education and leadership program in Pakistan. S/he will provide specific advice and technical support on issues related to girls education, economic empowerment, and safety. The ideal candidate will be a dynamic individual and proven champion for gender equality, able to work effectively and respectfully with individuals from diverse backgrounds. Job Responsibilities:

- Provide systematic advisory support on issues related to girls access to education and economic opportunities to project staff, implementing partners, and short-term consultants;
- Act as a thought leader across all project activities with regard to gender dimensions of the project;
- Commission or conduct research and training as appropriate to support project goals;
- Keep up-to-date on developments and trends that have implications for girls empowerment efforts in Pakistan, including policy reform, advocacy campaigns, and best practices or adaptable models that will contribute to achieving project goals;
- Support M&E efforts to ensure gender-sensitive design, data collection, and analysis;
- Design appropriate tools and frameworks to ensure that the project is able to effectively promote girls empowerment and gender equality;
- Contribute to annual work planning and development of technical reports;
- Capture best practices and lessons learned for dissemination to World Learning headquarters, USAID, project partners, other international donors and implementing organizations, and relevant stakeholders as appropriate;
- Other responsibilities that may be assigned.

Qualifications:

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 29

- Masters' degree in gender studies, human rights, law, public policy, international development, or other related field required;
- Proven expert in issues that address or influence gender disparities in Pakistan, including policy, law, social/cultural norms; and gender-based violence;
- Proven track record in working at both the community and policy level to promote gender equality;
- Demonstrated ability to translate theoretical concepts into practice;
- Proven competence to identify training needs and to provide training and mentoring to a range of personnel;
- Proven track record in conducting and commissioning research on gender issues;
- Experience working in a multi-cultural team;
- Previous USAID experience and/or knowledge of USAID's gender strategy highly desirable;
- Fluent written and spoken English required;
- Fluent Urdu required; proficiency in one or more of the following languages highly desirable: Punjabi, Pashto, Sindhi;
- Commitment to inclusive programming that encourages full participation of individuals regardless of gender, disability status, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or other marginalized status.

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

Regional Field Manager: Asia, Global Leadership Adventures, Thailand

Posted: October 11, 2016

Position Description:

The mission of Global Leadership Adventures is to inspire the next generation to realize their potential to transform the world and their role in it. Global Leadership Adventures ("GLA") presents a fresh, new approach to service-learning abroad for intellectually-curious and socially-oriented teenagers. Programs are offered in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. Participants explore historic and natural sites in different countries while they learn the local language and history, and serve the

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 30

community through meaningful volunteer efforts. GLA's goal is to provide life-changing experiences that will cultivate a global perspective and open-mindedness in students that will ultimately inspire them to become great leaders and global thinkers and seek positive change in their own communities.

This full-time, mid-level position will be part of the EduTerra Global International Programs team, which operates Global Leadership Adventures- a teenage study-abroad program. Global Leadership Adventures is a program of EduTerra Global Education, located in Mauritius.

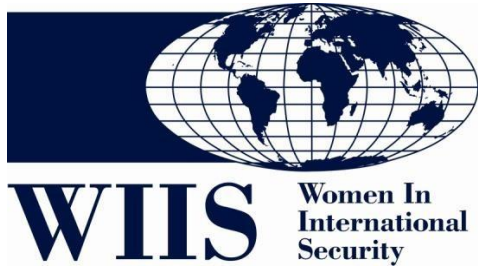

The Country Field Manager will represent GLA in Asia. They will manage all operations for existing programs, engage in new program development, and, during the months of June - August, provide hands-on support to summer field staff and programming.

They will work closely with the Asia Regional Director of International Programs based in headquarters in San Diego as they seek to efficiently provide the most high quality, cost-effective programming possible.

They will work remotely; therefore, the ability to utilize multiple technology platforms and engage in effective written and oral communication is essential.

Qualifications:

Due to the dynamic nature of our business, all staff members may be asked to assume tasks and responsibilities outside of their job description. It is imperative that the person hired for this role is flexible, eager to pitch-in where needed, and is ready to solve problems and contribute to a successful experience that delivers business objectives. This will often involve working outside of office hours, including, at times, evenings and weekends. The Country Field Manager will oversee all program development, implementation and management of new and existing partnerships located in Asia. Management of programs includes the following: Programming & Budgeting: 50%. 30% - Collaborate with stakeholders to support the growth and development of International Programs throughout Thailand and other countries in Southeast Asia. Including but not limited to: Research, negotiate and maintain contracts with key suppliers and partners (e.g. transport, lodging, food, activities) per GLA Universal Standards. You will be required to travel for site visits and ongoing support. Build and manage comprehensive budgets that account for variables in programming under the guidance of Regional Director. Build safe and engaging program itineraries that appeal to teenagers with a balance of community service, cultural immersion, and adventure.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 31

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Regional Field Manager: South America, Global Leadership Adventures, Peru

Posted: October 11, 2016

Position Description:

The mission of Global Leadership Adventures is to inspire the next generation to realize their potential to transform the world and their role in it. Global Leadership Adventures ("GLA") presents a fresh, new approach to service-learning abroad for intellectually-curious and socially-oriented teenagers. Programs are offered in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. Participants explore historic and natural sites in different countries while they learn the local language and history, and serve the community through meaningful volunteer efforts. GLA's goal is to provide life-changing experiences that will cultivate a global perspective and open-mindedness in students that will ultimately inspire them to become great leaders and global thinkers and seek positive change in their own communities.

This full-time, mid-level position will be part of the EduTerra Global International Programs team, which operates Global Leadership Adventures- a teenage study-abroad program. Global Leadership Adventures is a program of EduTerra Global Education, located in Mauritius.

The Country Field Manager will represent GLA in Peru. They will manage all operations for existing programs, engage in new program development, and, during the months of June - August, provide hands-on support to summer field staff and programming.

They will work closely with the South America Regional Director of International Programs based in headquarters in San Diego as they seek to efficiently provide the most high quality, cost-effective programming possible.

They will work remotely; therefore, the ability to utilize multiple technology platforms and engage in effective written and oral communication is essential.

Qualifications:

Due to the dynamic nature of our business, all staff members may be asked to

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 32

assume tasks and responsibilities outside of their job description. It is imperative that the person hired for this role is flexible, eager to pitch-in where needed, and is ready to solve problems and contribute to a successful experience that delivers business objectives. This will often involve working outside of office hours, including, at times, evenings and weekends. The Country Field Manager will oversee all program development, implementation and management of new and existing partnerships located in South America. Management of programs includes the following: Programming & Budgeting: 50%. 30% - Collaborate with stakeholders to support the growth and development of International Programs throughout Thailand and other countries in Southeast Asia. Including but not limited to: Research, negotiate and maintain contracts with key suppliers and partners (e.g. transport, lodging, food, activities) per GLA Universal Standards. You will be required to travel for site visits and ongoing support. Build and manage comprehensive budgets that account for variables in programming under the guidance of Regional Director. Build safe and engaging program itineraries that appeal to teenagers with a balance of community service, cultural immersion, and adventure.

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Southeast Asia Political & Security Risk Analyst, Allan & Associates, London, United Kingdom

Posted: Open Call

Position Description:

The role involves the analysis of political and security risks throughout the Asia-Pacific region, but with a particular focus on Southeast Asia. The successful candidate will be responsible for contributing to subscription information services and bespoke consulting projects. Where necessary, the analyst will support security consulting operations and may be required to travel within the region. The role will involve some client contact and applicants should be confident presenting to a high-level audience. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 33

Essential

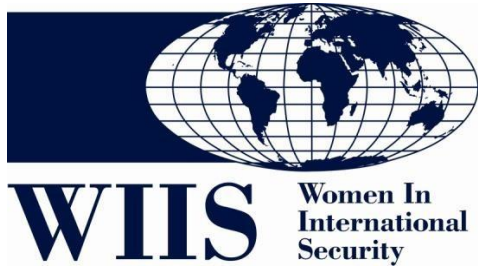

- Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Southeast Asia Area Studies, International Relations, International Politics, Strategic Studies, or similar. Applicants must be able to demonstrate a specialty in Southeast Asia.
- Detailed knowledge and understanding of key political, security and business risk issues affecting the Southeast Asia region.
- Excellent written English and working proficiency in a regional language (Indonesian Bahasa highly desirable).
- Ability to write clearly, concisely and authoritatively in English to tight deadlines.
- Highly presentable with strong verbal communication skills.
- Practical experience living, working, travelling or volunteering in Southeast Asia.
- IT proficiency and familiarity with MS Office suite.
- Strong research skills, an ability to learn quickly and a methodical approach to intelligence gathering tasks.

Desirable

- Existing regional network of contacts and sources.
- Working knowledge of a second regional language.
- Solid understanding of macro-economics.
- Familiarity with social-media monitoring as a research tool.
- Prior military or security experience.

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 34

Fellowships, Grants, Internships, and Academic Opportunities

NATO PA Research Assistant, NATO, Brussels, Belgium

Deadline: October 15, 2016

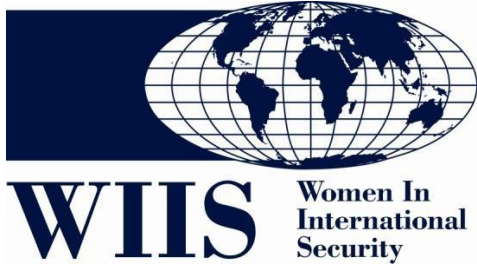

Position Description:

The NATO Parliamentary Assembly employs ten research assistants every year to work as part of the policy team within the NATO PA International Secretariat in Brussels. The majority of these positions are given to candidates from NATO member countries. However, candidates from non-NATO members are also considered as part of the Loïc Bouvard Scholarship, which was created in tribute to Loïc Bouvard (France) who was President of the NATO Parliamentary Assembly (1992-1994) and played a vital role in establishing partnerships with non-NATO member countries.

The research assistant's main task is to contribute, at the request of Committee Directors or Senior Management, to the research and writing necessary for the drafting of Assembly reports and other documents such as background information documents and drafts of speeches. Research assistants attend the parliamentary Sessions of the Assembly and are asked to assist in note taking and summary writing. As part of the larger NATO PA team, research assistants are occasionally asked to complete basic administrative tasks.

Qualifications:

Candidates must have a Master's degree (or equivalent) in Political Sciences, International Relations or a related field. Candidates may apply prior to obtaining their degree as long as all requirements for their MA have been fully completed. Candidates still in the middle of their MA studies will not be considered. Experience in government or policy research institutions is a further asset. Preference is given to candidates who have recently completed their Master's degree.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 35

The two official languages of the NATO PA are English and French. We are looking for candidates that are fluent in either or both languages. If French is your stronger language, please note that a high level of proficiency in English is also required for the position. If neither French nor English is a mother tongue, applicants should be prepared to demonstrate certified evidence of language skills upon request. Knowledge of another language(s) is a further plus.

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

Intern for Political Affairs, United Nations, Vienna, Austria

Deadline: October 21, 2016

Position Description:

The intern shall undertake the following duties which may include, but are not limited to:

- Support the substantive work of the Office and its cooperation on disarmament and non-proliferation, as well as a security culture, particularly in coordination with Vienna-based organizations
- Participate in meetings/conferences/seminars and prepare meeting reports
- Participate in the planning of specific UNODA projects (i.g., meetings, workshops, conferences and training courses)
- Contribute to the preparation of background documents, presentations, summaries, talking points and speeches
- Conduct research on political and legal aspects of disarmament and non-proliferation

Qualifications:

To qualify for an internship with the United Nations Internship Programme, the following conditions must be met:

- Applicants must meet one of the following requirements: (a) be enrolled in a graduate school programme (second university degree or equivalent, or higher); (b) be enrolled in the final academic year of a first university degree programme (minimum Bachelor's level or equivalent); or (c) have graduated with a university degree (as defined above) and, if selected, must commence

WIIS Jobs Hotline

WIIS Women In
International
Security

October 14, 2016

Page | 36

the internship within a one year period of graduation (OFFICIAL PROOF FROM THE UNIVERSITY SUPPORTING ONE OF THE ABOVE OPTIONS SHOULD BE ATTACHED TO THE INSPIRA APPLICATION);

- Be computer literate in standard software applications
- Have a demonstrated keen interest in the work of the United Nations and have a personal commitment to the ideals of the Charter; and
- Have a demonstrated ability to successfully interact with individuals of different cultural backgrounds and beliefs, which include willingness to try and understand and be tolerant of differing opinions and views.
- English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. Fluency in spoken and written English is required for the internship. Knowledge of an additional official UN language is an asset.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

Military Trip to Israel, The Foundation for Defense of Democracies

Deadline: October 28, 2016

Position Description:

The trip will take place March 2 - 10, 2017. Throughout the week, trip participants will travel around Israel to visit elite military installations, participate in meetings with high-level Israeli and American decision-makers, and take part in a counterterrorism training exercise with former Israeli Special Forces. Participants will leave the trip with a nuanced understanding of regional challenges and the practical skills to counter 21st century security threats. Upon completion of the trip, participants will become members of FDD's National Security Network, a mid-career professionals group comprised of nearly 200 alumni.

FDD will cover the cost of round trip airfare between Washington, D.C. and Tel Aviv, double hotel room accommodations, at least two meals per day, and transportation on the ground in Israel. FDD is a 501c3 non-profit organization which runs a number of educational trips every year. We comply with all federal and congressional ethics rules. See full job description here.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 37

Qualifications:

- Participants must be active personnel in the U.S. Military
- Should be between the ages of 30-40 and/or hold the ranks of Major/ Lieutenant Commander/ Lieutenant Colonel/ Commander/ Colonel
- Based in the greater-Washington, D.C. area
- Attendance at a pre-trip and post-trip session in Washington, D.C. Tentative dates are February 9, 2017 and April 6, 2017

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to here.

International Affairs Fellowship

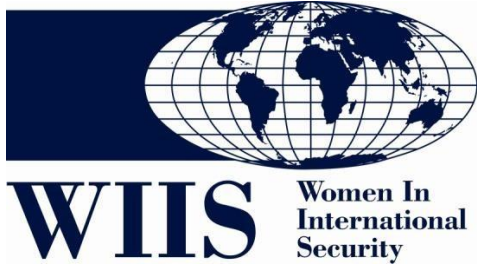

Deadline: October 31, 2016

Fellowship Description:

Council on Foreign Affairs awards approximately ten fellowships annually to highly accomplished individuals who have a capacity for independent work and who are eager to undertake serious foreign policy analysis. Approximately half of the selected IAFs each year spend their tenures working full-time in government; the remaining half are placed at academic institutions, think tanks, or nonprofit organizations. CFR's Fellowship Affairs Office assists all fellows in finding a suitable affiliation for the year. In addition to providing the opportunity to carry out research, the IAF Program integrates all fellows into the intellectual life of CFR. Fellows who are not placed at CFR during their tenure are invited to attend and participate in select CFR meetings and events. Alumni of the program stay connected with CFR and its prestigious network of professionals and leaders, and convene at CFR's annual IAF Conference in New York City each spring. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Mid-career professionals who have a demonstrated commitment to a career in foreign policy
- Advanced degree and possess a strong record of work experience as well as a firm grounding in the field of foreign policy
- Qualified candidates must be U.S. citizens and permanent residents who are eligible to work in the United States. CFR does not sponsor for visas.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 38

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

International Affairs Fellowship in Canada

Deadline: October 31, 2016

Position Description:

Launched in 2016, the International Affairs Fellowship (IAF) in Canada seeks to strengthen mutual understanding and cooperation between rising generations of leaders and thinkers in the United States and Canada. The program provides for one to two mid-career U.S. citizens per year to spend six to twelve months hosted by a Canadian institution to deepen their knowledge of Canada. Fellows are drawn from academia, business, government, media, NGOs, and think tanks. The Council on Foreign Affairs will work with its network of contacts to assist the fellows in finding suitable host organizations in Canada. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Qualified candidates must be U.S. citizens.
- Applicants from a broad range of professional, academic, and personal backgrounds.
- Mid-career professionals who have a demonstrated commitment to a career in foreign policy and have an interest in U.S.-Canada relations.

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

International Affairs Fellowship in Japan

Deadline: October 31, 2016

Position Description:

Founded in 1997, the International Affairs Fellowship (IAF) in Japan, sponsored by Hitachi, Ltd., seeks to strengthen mutual understanding and cooperation between

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 39

the rising generations of leaders in the United States and Japan. The program provides a selected group of mid-career U.S. citizens the opportunity to expand their professional horizons by spending a period of research or other professional activity in Japan. Fellows are drawn from academia, business, government, media, NGOs, and think tanks. In cooperation with the Council on Foreign Affairs, the program's sponsor, Hitachi, Ltd., assists fellows in finding suitable host organizations in Japan. A nonexclusive list of cooperating institutions in Japan can be found below. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Mid-Career professions that have demonstrated commitment to a career in foreign policy
- Have an interest in U.S.-Japan relations
- Knowledge of Japanese is not required
- Must be a U.S. citizen

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

International Affairs Fellowship for Tenured International Relations Scholars

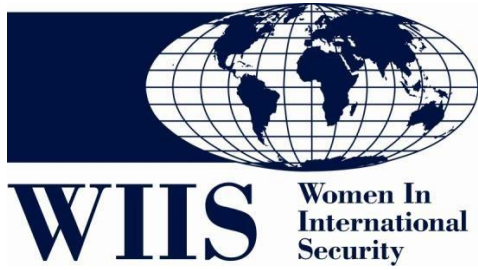

Deadline: October 31, 2016

Position Description:

The fellowship, by Council on Foreign Affairs, helps close the gap between research and practice on peace and security as well as enrich the teaching and scholarship of tenured academics by enabling selected fellows to become practitioners. The program also benefits policymakers by exposing them to critical scholarly research relevant to the foreign policy and national security issues facing the United States and the world community. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Only tenured professors whose work focuses on international relations or U.S. foreign policy
- U.S. Citizens

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 40

- Hold a Ph.D.

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

Bosch Fellowship, Berlin, Germany

Deadline: November 1, 2016

Fellowship Description:

The Robert Bosch Foundation and Cultural Vistas invite US professionals to apply for the 2017-2018 Robert Bosch Foundation Fellowship Program. Bosch Fellows act as consultants in their field of expertise at leading public or private institutions in Germany. In addition, Bosch Fellows participate in professional seminars, where they travel to meet and exchange ideas with key figures across Germany and Europe. Fellows are from the fields of public policy and administration, foreign and security policy, urban and regional planning, business, journalism and communications, law, or cultural and arts management

See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Candidates for the Robert Bosch Foundation Fellowship Program must meet the following requirements:
- U.S. citizen
- 40 years of age or younger at the application deadline
- Minimum 5 years of relevant, full-time work experience in target fellowship field (excluding internships)
- Graduate degree preferred
- Evidence of outstanding professional performance
- Sincere commitment to furthering the transatlantic relationship

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 41

Next Generation National Security Leaders Program, CNAS, Washington, D.C.

Deadline: November 5, 2016

Position Description:

The Center for a New American Security will select 20 national security leaders ages 27-35 to participate in monthly dinner discussions on leadership and management in the field of national security. Through these discussions, the Next Gen Fellows will be able to learn and benefit from the lessons and experiences of those who led before them. Last year's dinner guests included General Stanley McChrystal, Admiral Michael Mullen, Josh Bolten, Secretary Madeleine Albright, Nate Fick, among others. The bipartisan group of emerging analysts and practitioners will work to develop a deeper understanding of U.S. national security interests and policies as well as leadership principles and best practices.

In addition to monthly dinners, CNAS Next Generation fellows will have the opportunity to contribute to collaborative writing projects with CNAS experts as well as with their fellow classmates and will be invited to participate in many of the small, invitation-only meetings CNAS hosts throughout the year. Additionally the Next Gen fellows will be invited to take part in an exclusive week-long international study tour and several local visits and meetings throughout the year.

Qualifications:

- Be a United States citizen
- Be between 27 and 35 years old, as of 11/5/2016
- Possess a Bachelor's Degree
- Have at least four years of professional experience in researching or executing U.S. national security policy
- Be able to travel to Washington, D.C. for monthly dinners
- Demonstrate a commitment to public service

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 42

Stanton Nuclear Security Fellowship

Deadline: December 15, 2016

Position Description:

Nuclear security is one of the greatest challenges facing the world today. The spread of nuclear weapons to unstable and hostile states, the risk of conflict between nuclear armed nations, and the potential for terrorist groups to acquire nuclear arms all demand new thinking and creative policy solutions. The Stanton Nuclear Security Fellowship (SNSF) Program, made possible by a generous grant from the Stanton Foundation, offers younger scholars studying nuclear security issues the opportunity to spend a period of twelve months at the Council on Foreign Relations' (CFR) offices in New York or Washington, DC, conducting policy-relevant research. See full job description here.

Qualifications:

- Postdoctoral fellows or junior faculty in a tenure track position
- Junior faculty at law schools or with a law degree as their terminal degree are also eligible
- Must be a U.S. Citizen

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

Policy Oriented Research and Knowledge Management on Women's Political Participation, United Nations, New York, NY

Deadline: December 30, 2016

Position Description:

Under the direct supervision of the Political Participation Advisor, the Intern will support ongoing research initiatives aimed to develop knowledge products for policy and program guidance on key niche areas on women's political participation including on: violence against women in elections, Women's Situation Rooms and women's political participation at local level.

- Assist with the review of country case studies on Women's Situation Rooms

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 43

- Assist with the preparation of an expert meeting of practitioners and researchers in the field of women's participation at the local level;
- Provide support to other activities in the Women's Political Participation area as required.

Qualifications:

- The Intern must have studies in Political Science, Gender, Human Rights International Relations or related field or other similar subject at the university level.
- Be enrolled in a graduate school program (second university degree or equivalent, or higher);
- Be enrolled in the final academic year of a first university degree program (minimum Bachelor's level or equivalent);
- Have graduated with a university degree and, if selected, must commence the internship within a one-year period of graduation.

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

Dissertation Fellowship Award

Deadline: January 12, 2016

Position Description:

The ACUNS Dissertation Fellowship Award recognizes emerging students of extraordinary potential who have reached the stage of writing an advanced graduate-level dissertation on a topic of direct and demonstrable relevance to the United Nations and/or the UN system. Applications not thus related to the UN and/or UN system will not be considered.

An important component of the Award for its winner is the recognition of excellence that this entails throughout ACUNS' global community of scholars and practitioners. The Award also includes a monetary component in the amount of $1,500.00 US. In addition, the winner is encouraged to attend the ACUNS Annual Meeting in that same year, where she/he will be introduced and recognized as the Award winner. In that case, the winner will receive an Annual Meeting registration fee waiver (worth

WIIS Women In
International
Security

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 44

up to $150 of the registration fee) plus an additional award of up to $500 following the Meeting for the reimbursement of related travel and accommodations costs.

The Dissertation Award winner is encouraged to consider in the future submitting some written product to ACUNS' journal, Global Governance. Use of any materials, however, will be at the discretion of the journal editorial team and the normal peer review process..

Qualifications:

Applicants for the award should already be a student member of ACUNS. Information about joining ACUNS can be found on our website. If you are an applicant from the Global South whose financial status may preclude them from purchasing a membership, please contact admin@acuns.org. Eligible candidates may be citizens of any country and must be entering the writing stage of a PhD, JSD, or LLM level degree—for example, a doctoral candidate who has defended her/his dissertation proposal and who has completed the majority of field research, and who now is writing a first draft of the dissertation. It is not intended for students who already have completed, or who are about to complete, the writing, or who are about to defend their thesis. If you have any questions, or are not clear whether your application falls within the guidelines, you should contact the ACUNS Secretariat prior to submitting your application, at admin@acuns.org.

How to Apply:

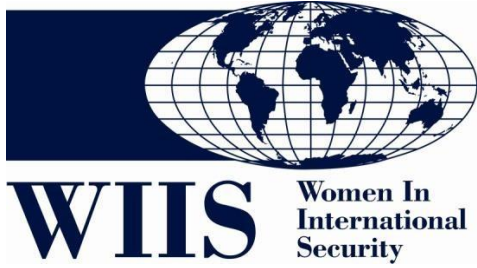

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

International Affairs Fellowship in Nuclear Security

Deadline: January 16, 2017

Position Description:

The International Affairs Fellowship (IAF) in Nuclear Security, sponsored by the Stanton Foundation, offers university-based scholars valuable hands-on experience in the nuclear security policymaking field and places selected fellows in U.S. government positions or international organizations for a period of twelve months to work with practitioners. The IAF in Nuclear Security closes the gap between research and practice and enriches the teaching and scholarship of academics, while also benefiting policymakers by exposing them to cutting-edge scholarly research. See full job description here.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 45

Qualifications:

- Tenure or tenure track position
- U.S. Citizen
- 29-50 years' old
- Former Stanton nuclear security fellows who meet the eligibility can apply

How to Apply:

Find more details on the fellowship program and how to apply here.

Consular Fellows Program, U.S. Department of State, Washington, D.C.

Posted: July 15, 2016

Position Description:

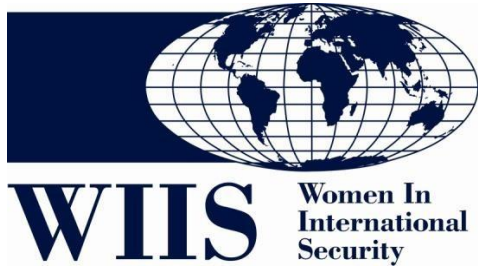

Become a Consular Fellow and use your language proficiency in Spanish, Chinese Mandarin, Portuguese, Arabic, French and Russian as part of a unique national service program working in U.S. embassies and consulates abroad.

The Consular Fellows Program is a limited non-career appointment of up to five years which directly supports the Department of State's mission to provide overseas consular services that protect U.S. citizens, ensure U.S. national security, facilitate the entry of legitimate travelers, and foster economic growth at home.

Consular Fellows adjudicate visa applications of foreign citizens seeking to come to the United States to visit, study, and work, and assist U.S. citizens traveling or living abroad. You are on the front lines of preventing fraud, combatting trafficking in persons, and protecting U.S. border security.

Working together with dedicated professionals, this public service opportunity provides valuable professional experience and you will develop and apply a wide range of skills, from managing resources to conducting public outreach. New hire Consular Fellows will be eligible for an incentive equal to 10% of their basic salary and may be eligible for the Student Loan Repayment Program.

Qualifications:

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 46

Motivated, culturally aware, adaptable problem-solvers who have sound judgment and strong customer service skills and can retain their composure during stressful circumstances

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

Refugee Policy Intern (Fall), HIAS, Silver Spring, Maryland

Posted: September 8, 2016

Position Description:

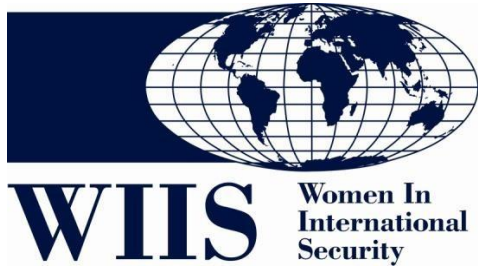

HIAS seeks a U.S. Programs intern to help respond to the global refugee crisis. The intern will work with the U.S. Programs team on initiatives affecting refugees, asylum seekers and special immigrant visa (SIV) holders resettling in the United States. The position is unpaid but may be pursued for academic credit. A semester or quarter commitment is required. See full job description here.

Qualifications

- Pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree; strong interest in refugee resettlement, human rights, international relations, and immigration.
- Experience with immigrants, asylum seekers and/or refugees preferred.
- Excellent interpersonal, analytical and written communication skills; critical thinking and cross-cultural communication skills strongly desired.
- Detail oriented; ability to handle various tasks in a fast paced environment.
- Foreign language proficiency preferred.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint preferred.

How to Apply:

Find more information about requisite qualifications and the application process here.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 47

Cora Weiss Fellowship, Global Network of Women Peacebuilders, Washington, D.C.

Posted: September 13, 2016

Position Description:

The Global Network of Women Peacebuilders (GNWP) is happy to announce a new initiative: the Cora Weiss Fellowship for Young Women Peacebuilders. The Fellowship aims to support the development of young women peacebuilders and ensure that more young people share Cora's vision for sustainable peace and gender equality as strong and integral parts of our global culture.

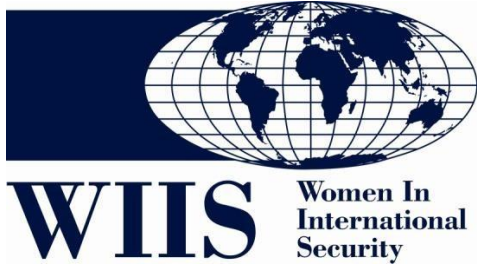

The opportunity to work with GNWP for one year on its global advocacy in the UN to promote the implementation of the UN Security Council Resolutions (UNSCR) 1325 and 1820 on Women, Peace and Security, and related laws and policies. In addition, the applicant will also have the opportunity to participate in GNWP's national and local initiatives such as the Localization of UNSCR 1325 and 1820, and Girl Ambassadors for Peace.

Qualifications:

- At least one year experience of volunteering or employment in a women's rights/human rights/peace advocacy organization.
- One year experience in policy advocacy on women's rights, human rights, peace and other social justice issues, including understanding of the UN Security Council Resolution 1325 on Women, Peace and Security, and related laws and policies.
- A Bachelor's degree in international relations, women/gender studies or the social sciences.
- Has lived or worked in a developing country for at least one year.
- Since the fellowship will take place in New York where the international community is mainly congregated, proficiency in the English language is a must.

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 48

Alfa Fellow, Alfa Fellowship Program, Russia

Posted: October 12, 2016

Position Description:

The Alfa Fellowship Program is a high-level professional development initiative placing up to 18 American, British, and German citizens per year in work assignments at leading organizations in Russia in the fields of business, economics, journalism, law, public policy, and related areas. Key goals of the Alfa Fellowship Program are expanding networks of American, British, and German professionals, developing greater intercultural understanding, and advancing knowledge of Russian affairs in the West.

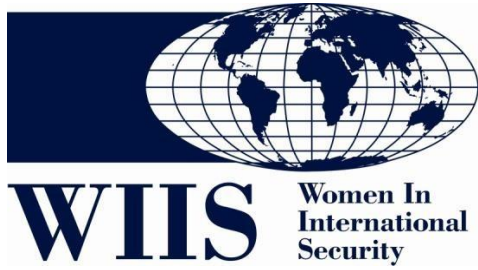

The Alfa Fellowship Program begins with language training in the Fellow's geographic location followed by a language course in Moscow starting in mid-June. Throughout the summer, Alfa Fellows attend a seminar program with key public and private sector officials to discuss current issues facing Russia. Fellows then work at prominent organizations in Russia, including private companies, media outlets, think tanks, and foundations.

Qualifications:

Eligible candidates must have a graduate degree and professional experience in business, economics, journalism, law, public policy, or a related field. Russian language proficiency is not required, but is preferred. The Fellowship includes a generous monthly stipend, language training, program-related travel costs, housing and insurance.

U.S., U.K., or German citizen between the ages of 25 and 35 - Graduate degree and professional experience in business, economics, journalism, law, government or public policy. Candidates without a graduate degree must demonstrate extensive and equivalent professional experience in their field.

Outstanding professional achievement and academic qualifications - Active involvement in community or public service - Evidence of leadership potential - Russian language experience is preferred, however not required, at the time of application. Applicants proficient in another second language may be considered.

WIIS Jobs Hotline

October 14, 2016

Page | 49

How to Apply:

Find more information about the application process here.